Hi Chris – Would you have time for a quick call with Nick and myself this afternoon? We still have a couple questions on the comments.

Best regards,

Good morning Chris – We are still going through your comments and updating the application. The deadline to get this back to you is March 5th. If we needed a couple of extra days, would it be necessary to withdraw and resubmit? I would like to avoid withdrawing, but because of the winter storm here in Texas, we lost a week to work on this.

Best regards,

Michelle Yalung

Michelle,

I have completed the review of the application to convert the Tribal C-13 well to a Class II Salt-water Disposal Well; the cover letter and enclosed comments requesting additional information are attached. If you are available, I'd be happy to go over each of the comments and discuss information needed to complete the application next week.
